NUMBER 31

My Word!

Dorothy Larimer

THE TRAGIC death of Dr. Martin Luther King last week has had a profound impact on Albany as it has on the rest of the world. Flags at half-mast, there were sermons from the pulpits Sunday morning and various communications went out from local groups. Time Fine, president of 7th Congressional District, sent a telegram to President Johnson requesting immediate cessation of all affirmative acts of violence against the U.S. in Vietnam with money now being spent on that balance diverted to solving the problems of poverty and racism at home.

Many stores were closed Tuesday morning in tribute to Dr. King. City Council directed that City Hall be closed, but because of election day, at least one clerk, the City Clerk's, had to be present.

Council on Monday night and Chamber of Commerce board meeting adjourned with a moment of silence in his memory. The C of C board passed resolution in Dr. King's honor.

BOB DENNIS, principal of Albany Adult School, retired with a lifetime on his birthday last Sunday. He has been with Albany Unified School district 28 years and has been in the teaching profession 39 years. He joins a list of becoming quite a list of teachers in 1968: Irene Freeman from Cornell school last month; her husband, Inspector Vern Freeman on May 15, and City Myrtle McLean on May 1. Bob's retirement would be normal. He came on June 30, but he was forced to take a disability retirement. He entered Kaiser Hospital last Jan. 11 by ambulance from Albany High school and never returned to work. He was hospitalized 23 days. In 1967, he was in the hospital 32 days in January and February and nine in March. Let's hope he can get out of the hospital from now on. We'll have a complete story on him later.

Little League

Cookie Laveggetto Will Be Grand Marshal April 27

Cookie Laveggetto, one of America's most famous sports figures, will be honorary grand marshal in the Albany Little League parade Saturday, April 27 at 11 a.m.

A booster of Little Leaguers in all communities, Laveggetto is a former manager of the Washington Senators, former coach of the San Francisco Giants and an All-Star Brooklyn Dodger player.

Del Wisenor, Albany Little League president, is seeing one of his dreams come true with the coming parade. It has always been his hope to have the annual parade the biggest and grandest of all before he retires from the league in the fall.

Other units participating but not named at this time are three antique car clubs, floats, four bands, clowns with give-aways, dignitaries who will include other baseball greats.

American Legion post 292, under the direction of Leroy Holland, will provide a six-man color guard.

Each week, Dario Meniketti, unit chairman, reports more interesting and colorful entries.

McDonald's Giving Hamburgers and Fries to LL Boosters

McDonald's Hamburgers is truly one of Albany Little League's biggest boosters, for once again they are prepared to donate thousands of hamburgers and bags of french fries from April 20 to May 31 to Little League friends.

With each dollar donation to the Youth Fund Drive, the donor is given a receipt which will entitle him, upon presentation to McDonald's in Berkeley, a free hamburger and bag of fries as well as a chance at a drawing Saturday, June 1, for three U.S. Savings Bonds.

Funds collected from this "booster ticket" drive help to defray league expenses. All donations are tax deductible.

April 11 Last Day to Register

California voters must be currently registered by April 11 in order to vote in the vital June 4 Presidential primaries. Knowing these requirements of California elections law may protect you from losing your right to vote needlessly.

If you have never before voted in California, you must register. If you have moved here from another state, or have just turned 21, be sure to get your name on California's voting rolls. If you have moved since the last election, November, 1966, you may need to reregister. A change of address requires a new registration. If you did not vote in 1966, you must reregister now. People who do not vote in each general election have their names stricken from the list of registered voters.

Finally, if you wish to change party affiliation, you must reregister.

ELECTION EVE COUNCIL SESSION ADJOURNS IN MEMORY OF TWO

Albany City Council adjourned a 45-minute Election Eve session Monday night in a moment of silence honoring the late Edilberto Macagba, 21, of 961 Neilson, who died in Vietnam, and Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., killed by an assassin last week.

They unanimously approved Administrative Officer James B. Turner's proposal for insurance for employees, including Council members, which provides $2,000 life insurance and $2,000 accidental death or dismemberment for full-time employees and half that amount for part-time employees.

Council commended Turner, who studied 31 proposals before making his recommendation.

April 22 was set as the date for a hearing on appeal from the decision of the Planning and Zoning commission to deny a use permit for a rest home at 1533 Posen. That night had already been set for Council hearing on the use permit.

A petition containing 132 signatures asking that Council reconsider its decision to deny a home occupation permit to Oscar Santos of 1041 Peralta was filed with a suggestion from Councilman H. F. Call that Santos apply again requesting permission to use his telephone for business purposes.

Councilman Joe Carlevaro and Mayor Richard Clark exchanged sharp words again regarding the Santos case when Mayor Clark said he does not want a garbage operation in a residential area.

Councilman Carlevaro accused him of personal antagonism in the matter.

Councilman Lewis Howell said it would appear from the petition that some people have changed their minds and suggested that Council could refer the matter to the City Attorney to see what measures should be taken to bring it back.

He added, however, that Santos gathers junk at the Albany Landfill.

First reading of Ordinance 68-02, regulating business licenses, was postponed one week at the suggestion of Call in order to get the opinion of the Chamber of Commerce, which met Tuesday morning. (C of C Board members accepted the ordinance as the most equitable means to increase revenue.)

April 22 was also set as the date for a public hearing on undergrounding utilities on Masonic Avenue.

Turner was authorized to obtain bids for signals on Jackson and Buchanan.

A work session will be scheduled with the Park and Recreation Commission to discuss hiring a planner to help develop a master plan for parks and recreation.

A request for a resolution opposing the San Francisco commuter tax was filed since Albany was one of the first to take such action.

A communication from the Highway Commission pertaining to parks was referred to the Park and Recreation Commission.

Turner was directed to attend a Division of Highways meeting Monday.

Under Good of the City it was noted by Darlo Meniketti that Boy Scout troop 12 won a blue ribbon at the Scout-O-Rama Saturday and he asked that veterans' organizations consider a memorial for Albany boys who may be lost in Vietnam.

Anita Tronoff added that Cub Pack 7 placed second at the Scout-O-Rama.

My Word ...

DECIDED to resume our calendar of events again, a bit late to unstick a sticky list of things going on. Like last Thursday: we had three places to be at one time, not counting the Donkey Ball Game at the high school, which sounded like fun. Wound up shuttling back and forth between a bridal shower for Cheri Jensen and the kids' appearance at the Cornell Music Festival.

AT NOON Thursday, we joined 850 women (they'd planned for 700) at the Spirit of '68 fashion show at Jack London Square, sponsored by Republican Women's clubs of Alameda County. It was, without doubt, one of the finest fashion shows ever, even if Nancy Reagan didn't show. Lots of Albany women involved.

GENIAL GEORGE HEIN brought us a box of campaign matches last week. He's the only candidate we've heard of in the Albany election who came out with matchbooks and bumper strips!

ONE OF THE most remarkable fellows in our town is Henry Kruse, an attorney, member of the Albany Library Board and newly-elected president of the Albany Lions club. He works at the Orientation Center for the Blind and, you guessed it, he is blind.

DICK JENSEN seems to be holding his own back in New London, Conn. His mom, Shirley Jensen, reports he is in one of the best hospitals in the coun-will be held this year at Trinity Methodist church, Dana at Durant, from 12 to 3 and at Phillips Temple, C.M.E. church, 3332 Adeline, just one block south of Al-tray, feeds himself and "eats like a horse," and carries on logical conversations. He's still on the critical list after a three story fall, which resulted in a skull fracture.

TWO LITTLE LEAGUERS, Sammy Scoggins and Keith Powell, spent their hours after school last week distributing posters for the parade to local merchants and leaving "parade booster tickets."

CHARLES F. CALL, son of Councilman Red and Ruth Call, is home on two-weeks leave from the U.S. Navy.

ON MONDAY, a six-foot Boa Constrictor was lost from a car in front of 810 San Pablo. Although its owner, Edward Yokomizo, said it was tame, Officer Bernard Johnson reported checking the immediate area "with grave forebodings" and noted it was not located. On Tuesday, the reptile was found in the yard behind the address where it disappeared.

at Phillips Temple there will be two showings of "The Parable," the controversial 22-minute color motion picture of a Christ-like figure who tries to help people and the reactions he gets. There will be scripture, prayer, and discussion. The same program will be available from 12 to 1 and from 1 to 2, with different leadership. Participating in the services will be the Reverends Mance C. Jackson, L. William Youngdahl, Luther Stemley and Donald P. Buteyn.

The service at Trinity Methodist church will be a special three-hour service divided into sections so worshippers may enter or leave near the hour if they cannot stay for the whole service. This service is one of scripture and prayer, highlighting the attitudes of people at the crucifixion and our attitudes today. Leading the service will be the Rev. J. Richard Hart, with the Reverends W. Hazal Williams, James Comfort Smith and Theron Duerfeldt preaching, in that order.

Fred Cabral's Latest Little League Sponsors

Newest Albany Little League sponsors are Fred and Judith Cabral, who are sponsoring two boys, one their son, Fred, who will play on the Dodgers team and the other will be from another team.

The Cabrals realize the Little League program offers their son the opportunity to learn the meaning of competition, good sportsmanship and the baseball "game" played under the National Little League rules and regulations adapted in Williamsport, Pa. after years of study by baseball experts and youth leaders of our nation.

Other new sponsors who are helping to build better citizens in the community by their contributions are Tamalpais Savings and Loan, Crown Heating and Sheet Metal and Wall-Ball Marathon, who now sponsor the American League Indians as well as their regular National League Giants player.

The marathon, held annually on Labor Day, is directed by Larry Eaton and Mike Still, manager and coach of the American League Twins.

Margaret Cowles, treasurer, and Mrs. William Hanson, financial secretary.

Mrs. Harry Plant is chairman of the installation committee and will be assisted by Mesdames Harold Brothers, Robert Roderick and Richard Roderick.

"They Key to the Future" is the theme for the evening, which begins with a friendship hour at 6:30 p.m. and dinner at 7:30 p.m.

Science Grant

Albany High school science teacher Gene Davis has been awarded a National Science Foundation grant for an eight-week course at the University of Washington this summer.

Davis plans to take a course in Radiation Biology, which will begin June 17 and which, according to Davis, will enhance his teaching at Albany High.

He applied directly to the University of Washington. Applicants are chosen to the basis of which teachers applying will benefit most from the grant.

Davis hopes to return not only with a deeper knowledge of Radiation Biology but also with new equipment provided by the Atomic Energy Commission, which he will use in his classes next year.

Berkeley Realty Board Co-Sponsors Conference

Henry Kuwada, president, has announced that Berkeley Board of Realtors and the California Real Estate Association will co-sponsor an educational and sales conference for local Realtors and salesmen in Berkeley at the Claremont Hotel on Thursday, April 25.

"Advanced Real Estate Sales" is the title of the conference, according to Kuwada. "This conference is one of a series being held throughout the state," he said, "to discuss fundamentals of listing, selling and financing real estate in the present-day market. It will not only benefit the Realtors and real estate salesmen who attend, but the clients they serve in their communities."

He said this is the 21st year that CREA has conducted conferences of this type.

According to John Cyr of Stockton, chairman of the CREA Education Committee, one of the nation's leading communications experts, Dr. Meyer M. Cahn, San Francisco State College educator and training consultant, will be a featured speaker on "Getting Your Wordsworth," covering methods of communicating in selling real estate.

Cyr said that a new book published by CREA on advanced selling will be distributed to every one attending the conference. He added that an examination will be given at the close of the one-day conference and those who receive passing grades will receive one unit of credit toward the CREA Education Certificate.

Eighteen units of credit, he said, plus three years' experience as a member of a local board of Realtors are required for a broker to obtain the Certificate. A Certified Member Salesman certificate requires 12 units and three years' experience.

Steve DiLoreto of Santa Barbara, chairman of the Sales Conference Committee, announced that subjects and speakers to be presented on the conference program include: "Successful Real Estate Listing Techniques" by Tom Hopkins of Santa Susana, and "Apartment Houses—When To Sell and When To Exchange" by Don Straub of Long Beach. Real Estate Commissioner Burton E. Smith or a representative of his office also will make a special presentation, "What To Do Until the Division of Real Estate Auditor Arrives." Dave Conger of Vallejo will be moderator.

A new 20-minute sound and color motion picture on "Showing the Property and Obtaining the

"The purchase of a home, or investment in an apartment building is usually the largest investment the average family will ever make," said Kuwada. "Such educational programs as this conference help Realtors give sound professional counsel and guidwomen high school graduates the opportunity to apply for the Language School enlistment option, according to Sergeant La Voie, the local Army recruiter.

Applicants who meet the eligibility requirements may attend a Defense Language school to learn a foreign language of their choice, consistent with the needs of the Army. The courses of instruction currently available range from Arabic to Vietnamese.

Interested persons may obtain more information on this program and other Army opportunities from Sergeant La Voie at Room 201, Main Post Office, 2000 Allston Way, Berkeley, or by telephoning 843-2977.

Food Preparation Class Starts

A complete course in cooking and baking, which includes buying and serving many types of foods for the family and party needs, will again be offered by the Albany Adult school, with Mrs. Frances Coulter as the instructor. It is offered on Monday evenings, 7 to 10, at the Albany High school building, 603 Key Route Boulevard.

New ideas for breakfast, lunch and dinner, and interesting and varied salads will be presented. In addition, the tips for economy cooking, saving by way of contrasting it-yourself" with "it-yourself" methods.

Special emphasis will be given to the "Make-it-later dishes" for busy people. When time permits, basic principles of standard recipes, and "quickie" meals and party dishes will be featured. Party menus, featuring beverages, will also be presented.

They were so happy to see reported Carol Ames after and her classmates from Albany High returned from a visit to Oak Knoll veterans hospital.
The girls, all members of the Red Cross Youth, baked cookies in the baking class of Mrs. Annette Alam and then took them out to the men in the plastic surgery wards.
The girls were surprised at the warmth and completeness of the hospital "community." The fact that anything could be gotten right

there on the grounds from drugs to clothing or that there was a theater, a barbershop or a bowling alley was a source of amazement.
For their next project, under the supervision of the Red Cross Youth advisor, Mrs. Marion Watkin, Maureen Haeslop, Marty Chandler, Pat Carullo, Sue Ca-
ruello, Sue Winship, Carol Ames,
Sue Chavez, Rasome Thompson,
Gayle Wightman and Liz Mac
Gaba are planning to make joke
books and crossword puzzle books, which the boys indicated they would enjoy having.

Barney E. Hilburn Is GOP Candidate for Congress

Barney E. Hilburn has filed for the Republican nomination for Congressman of the 7th Congressional District.

Hilburn, a lawyer by profession, is a graduate of Philander
Smith College, Little Rock, Ark., and Howard University Law school, Washington, D.C. He is a member of District of Columbia Bar Association.

Hilburn said in his announcement that people are becoming

Barney Hilburn

increasingly aware of the lack of dynamic leadership in the 7th District, and that he is acceding to the demands and wishes of many persons in seeking the nomination.

He stressed the need for absolute representation instead of token representation in the Congress of the United States for the people of his district. Hilburn stated that since jobs enhance man's dignity, there must be open access to job possibilities.
For example, he noted that full utilization of Bay Area ports with their many safe harbors could create permanent employment for thousands in skilled and semi-skilled positions. He would seek legislative support to assure that all Far Eastern shipping originate from Bay Area ports.

Hilburn stated that the war in Vietnam must be brought to an immediate conclusion. He noted that the 30 billion dollars per year now budgeted for the Vietnam war is creating a national financial crisis as evidenced by the continued attacks on the value of the dollar as well as intensive individual financial strain due to increase in federal and state taxes. He feels strongly about the loss of thousands of young American boys.

As president of the Oakland School board, Hilburn stresses the need for a new approach to education. He would seek to present a realistic yet exciting curricula in the schools to complement the needs of changing times. Hilburn said the approach should be such to attract and stimulate the student and to create a desire for education.

Advocating non-violence, Hilburn insists that the rights of all minority groups must be fully recognized to prevent further violence.
